RECENT PRESS

Hello Darryl,

How are you doing? If you're in my neck of the woods you're freezing. So I hope you're keeping warm and listening to some great live music!

I've got a lot to tell you about this month starting with some show information. I'm going to be playing at one of my favorite spots Mocha Coffeehouse. Mocha is a cozy little place in my town (Sandy Hook, CT) that truly reaches out to the community by offering nights of music, poetry and community discussions. It is a very small room, but that just adds to the intimacy. C'mon on out to hear me this Saturday at 8PM.

I'm going to be doing my cover version of the U2 song "One" which was suggested by one of my fans Gwenann Higham. If you have a cover song you'd like to hear me play, just let me know and I'll do my best to make it

Darryl Gregory is like Bruce Springsteen, with great story songs and aptitude for rockers as well as softer ballads. ~ Jamie Anderson, Indie-Music.com

Who's on Unsigned Underground Podcast?

Unsigned Underground is a great way for you to meet new artists. I do the show so that I can find out what's going on in indie music and then I pass that on to my listeners. This past month I interviewed Miriam Jones from Cambridge, England and Adam Stokes from Austin, TX. Later this month I'll be talking to Morgen La Civita and Canadian singer-songwriter Kim Jarrett. Tune in to hear.

Do you know any unsigned artists that need some exposure? Tell them to check out the podcast site and contact me.

Songwriters at The Blue Z

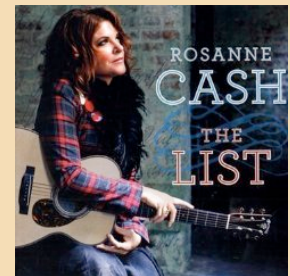

I just played a fun show last weekend with my songwriter's circle. We took over the Blue Z Coffeehouse in Newtown, CT and played a bunch of new songs, some old ones and even some covers. As I was playing one of my new ones my son, Tain, got up on stage and grabbed a shaker and joined the band! Here's a link to the video of the song that shows him playing along. He really adds a lot to it and he actually has pretty good rhythm. He loves being on stage because right after that he led the entire room in a rousing version of the ABC song.

What's On My iPod?

What's on my iPod these days? I cannot say enough about the new CD from Rosanne Cash called The List. The story goes that when Rosanne was traveling with her father Johnny Cash he was asking her if she knew some songs he'd been singing -

"When I was 18, I was on the road with my dad. One day, we were sitting in the tour bus, talking about songs, and he mentioned a song, and I said, "I don't know that one." He mentioned another one, and I said, "I don't know that one, either." Then he started to get alarmed, so he spent the rest of the day making a list on a legal pad, and at the top he put "100 Essential Country Songs." And he handed it to me and he said, "This is your education." - Rosanne Cash

The CD is amazing and every song is played perfectly and sung eloquently. I highly recommend it.

If you missed the telethon Hope For Haiti Now, you can download it to your iPod and at the same time contribute to the aid that is going to that grief stricken area. The performances are great and it's a super line-up of musicians.

Thanks for your support! I hope to see you soon so we can share some music together!
